Original worked example / unchanged complete key

Prompt: A child draws a cat sitting on a mat. The word bank contains: cat, mat, sit, sun, happy, nap. Write one sentence on the lines and one extension sentence.

Answer: Core sentence: The cat sits on the mat. Extension: The cat takes a nap in the sun.

Reason: The drawing shows a cat and a mat, so the core sentence names the cat and the action sits. The word bank supports cat, mat, and sit. The extension uses nap and sun from the bank and tells what happens next. The core sentence has a capital T, finger spaces, and a period. The extension has a capital T and a period. Both sentences are readable in print style with x-height letters touching the midline.
