Printable Grammar and Punctuation Rules Reference Sheet

Four original tasks / complete practice workshop

Name: _____ Date: _____

Task 1: Correct the subject-verb agreement: 'The cat and the dog plays in the garden.'

Task 2: Add correct punctuation: 'Where is the library'

Task 3: Fix the comma splice: 'I wanted to go for a walk, it was raining.'

Task 4: Correct the apostrophe use: 'The dog's are barking loudly.'

Quick check / tick after your attempt

- ☐ Subject-verb agreement is correct in all sentences.
- ☐ Punctuation marks are used correctly at sentence ends.
- ☐ Commas are used appropriately in lists and after introductory phrases.
- ☐ Apostrophes are correct for possession and contractions.
- ☐ The quick-check list is applied to identify and fix errors.

Name: Date:

Class:

Printable Grammar and Punctuation Rules Reference Sheet

Worksheet Response Fields

Genuine response fields for each exercise; practice values and reasons are empty.

Exercise 1: Correct the subject-verb agreement: 'The cat and the dog plays in the garden.'
Exercise 2: Add correct punctuation: 'Where is the library'
Exercise 3: Fix the comma splice: 'I wanted to go for a walk, it was raining.'
Exercise 4: Correct the apostrophe use: 'The dog's are barking loudly.'

Printable Grammar and Punctuation Rules Reference Sheet

Additional Response Space

Blank student response space for the quick-check list.