Reading and Writing Response Plates: Paired Passage and Lined Answer Practice

Response plate diagram: passage zone above, ruled response lines below

Hypothetical example: 18 cm lines, 8 mm spacing. Baseline and midline labeled; x-height marked baseline to midline.

Reading and Writing Response Plates: Paired Passage and Lined Answer Practice

Rubric key

Rubric key for the separate answer sheet.

Criterion	Met?
Response answers the task directly and matches the passage.
Response fits the available lines without crowding or running out of space.
Lowercase letters sit on the baseline.
X-height reaches the midline for the sampled letters.
Writing is legible to a reader who has not seen the passage.
Joined, printed, and mixed styles are all accepted when the baseline and midline rule is met.	