Draw Anger: Brow, Mouth and Posture Variations

Original task 1 / independent drawing and calculation

Task 1

Draw a mild anger expression. Use a brow angle of 8 degrees below horizontal, a gap reduced by one quarter from a neutral gap of 20 units, a downturned open mouth 25 units wide, and a forward lean of 5 degrees from vertical. Label each feature and state the measured values.

Keep the original task measurements. Use the full drawing sheet in this PDF for a response needing more room; use the stated paper size when a task specifies larger paper.

Original task 2 / independent drawing and calculation

Task 2

Draw an intense anger expression. Use a brow angle of 25 degrees below horizontal, a gap of 5 units from a neutral gap of 20 units, a squared shout mouth 35 units wide, and a forward lean of 15 degrees from vertical. Label each feature and state the measured values.

Draw Anger: Brow, Mouth and Posture Variations

Task 3

Draw two variants that differ only in mouth shape. Keep the brow at 15 degrees below horizontal with a gap of 10 units and the lean at 10 degrees from vertical. Variant A uses a pressed line 30 units wide; Variant B uses a downturned open mouth 30 units wide. Label the changed feature in each.

Draw Anger: Brow, Mouth and Posture Variations

Original task 4 / independent drawing and calculation

Task 4

Draw a suppressed anger expression. Use a brow angle of 20 degrees below horizontal with a gap of 8 units, a pressed-line mouth 28 units wide, and an upright posture with zero lean from vertical. Label each feature and explain why the posture differs from the other variants.
