Worked example / complete source key

Draw a maneki-neko on a sheet of paper. Use a head oval, a seated body, a raised paw on the right side, a collar band, and a coin ellipse. Keep the paw beside the head and the coin below the collar.

Answer: A completed drawing shows a seated cat figure with a head oval at the top, a wider body below, a rounded raised paw attached at the right shoulder and sitting beside the head, a two-line collar band across the neck, and an ellipse coin below the collar with one simple inner mark. Construction lines are erased and the features are readable without labels.
