Drawing a Dad: Pose Construction and Feature Practice

Original worked example / unchanged complete key

Prompt: Draw a dad figure standing with hands in pockets, wearing a collared shirt and casual trousers. Use the pose construction and feature placement steps.

Answer: A balanced figure with a slight belly curve, shoulders broader than hips, head oval with eye line at the one-third line from the top of the head, nose base at the two-thirds line from the top, simple smile lines, short hair, collared shirt with hem over hips, and relaxed stance with weight on one leg. Hands are suggested by simple shapes at pocket level.
