Draw Missing Body Parts: Kindergarten Completion Worksheets

Ordinary topic reference / separately checked pixels

Draw Missing Body Parts: Kindergarten Completion Worksheets

Original worked example / unchanged complete key

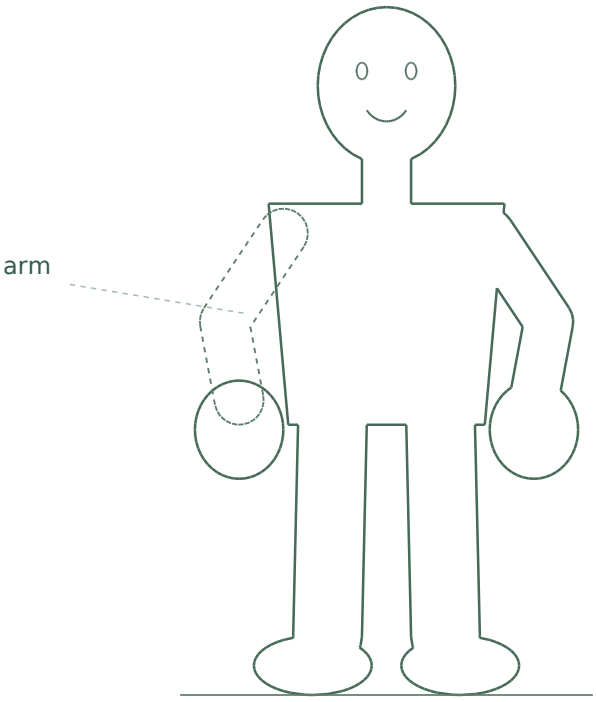

Prompt: A figure has a dashed gap labeled arm on the left side. The gap starts at the shoulder and ends near the waist. Draw the missing arm and color the figure.

Answer: A simple arm drawn from the shoulder gap down to the waist, touching the body at the top, then colored. A straight or slightly curved arm is acceptable.

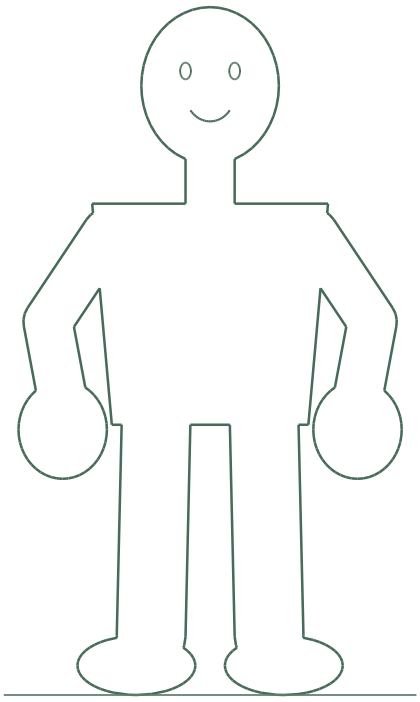

Draw Missing Body Parts: Kindergarten Completion Worksheets

Worked reference / reference

Body-part completion / dashed gaps are deliberate inputs / left and right mean page view

GIVEN / arm gap

One completed outline

Connect a recognizable arm at the shoulder and waist-end gap. The paired example shows the connection; learners may choose their own colors.