Draw a Character from Traits: A Worksheet Guide

Worked example / complete source key

A character trait list says: brave, curious, shy. Choose one cue per trait and describe the figure you would draw in the box.

Answer: Brave: feet apart, chin level, holding a walking stick. Curious: leaning forward, head tilted, one brow raised, holding a small notebook. Shy: shoulders turned inward, gaze lowered, clutching a bag strap. The figure stands with wide feet, leans slightly forward, and turns one shoulder inward. The walking stick is at the side, the notebook is at waist level, and the bag strap is held near the chest. The checklist marks posture, expression, and prop cues for all three traits.
