Draw and Compare Two Dinosaurs: Preschool Worksheet Plan

Worked example / complete source key

A child draws dinosaur one with a round body, two short legs, a small head, and a short tail. Dinosaur two has a long oval body, one long leg shape, a large head, a long tail, and a small horn on its head. The child marks body outline as different and horn as different in the table. Check the worksheet.

Answer: The worksheet is valid. Both drawings have body outline, leg shape, head shape, and tail shape. The table marks one shape difference (body outline) and one feature difference (horn, in the features row). The child can point to the horn on dinosaur two.
