Contour Drawing a Seminole Chickee Hut

Worked example / complete source key

Draw a front-view chickee hut with two visible posts, a platform line, and a thatch roof boundary. Use the contour convention and check your drawing against the rubric.

Answer: A completed contour drawing shows one horizontal platform line, two near-vertical post lines meeting it once each, and a stepped thatch boundary above the posts with short overlapping strokes. No shading appears. The check confirms three edge families, single-pass lines, and a stepped thatch silhouette.
