Cartoon Flute Player: Seated Pose Drawing Guide

Original worked example / unchanged complete key

Prompt: Draw a seated cartoon flute player in a 12 cm by 16 cm pose box. Use a horizontal flute line at mouth height, left hand near the embouchure oval, right hand two-thirds along the flute, thighs horizontal, lower legs vertical, and feet on the floor line.

Answer: A completed cartoon figure inside the pose box: head oval above a slightly forward-tilted torso rectangle, neck tube connecting them, hip line with horizontal thigh tubes, vertical lower leg tubes, feet wedges on the floor line, horizontal flute line with embouchure oval and lip plate, left hand mitt under the flute near the oval, right hand mitt two-thirds along, and forearms connecting to hands without crossing the flute.
