Practicing Bassoon Drawing: Joint Layout and Keywork Placement

Original task 1 / independent drawing and calculation

Task 1

Draw a bassoon layout with the bell at the top and the butt joint at the bottom. Label all five parts (four stacked body sections plus the bocal) and place 3 dots on the tenor joint, 4 on the bass joint, 5 on the butt joint, and 1 on the bocal.

Keep the original task measurements. Use the full drawing sheet in this PDF for a response needing more room; use the stated paper size when a task specifies larger paper.

Task 2

Redraw the same bassoon layout freehand without guide lines. Keep the same five labels (four stacked body sections plus the bocal) and dot counts. Then compare your freehand drawing to your first drawing by counting sections and dots.

Keep the original task measurements. Use the full drawing sheet in this PDF for a response needing more room; use the stated paper size when a task specifies larger paper.

Practicing Bassoon Drawing: Joint Layout and Keywork Placement

Original task 3 / independent drawing and calculation

Task 3

Draw a bassoon layout using small circles instead of dots for keywork. Use the same counts: 3 tenor, 4 bass, 5 butt, 1 bocal. Label each of the five parts (four stacked body sections plus the bocal) with consistent x-height.

Keep the original task measurements. Use the full drawing sheet in this PDF for a response needing more room; use the stated paper size when a task specifies larger paper.

Practicing Bassoon Drawing: Joint Layout and Keywork Placement

Original task 4 / independent drawing and calculation

Task 4

Draw a bassoon layout and add a second vertical center line offset by 1 cm to suggest side keys. Place the bass joint dots on the offset line and the tenor dots on the main center line. Keep counts 3 tenor, 4 bass, 5 butt, 1 bocal, and label all five parts (four stacked body sections plus the bocal).

Keep the original task measurements. Use the full drawing sheet in this PDF for a response needing more room; use the stated paper size when a task specifies larger paper.

Full drawing sheet / reusable blank workspace

Reusable full drawing sheet for Tasks 1 to 4. Print another copy when needed. Keep all original task measurements; if a task specifies larger paper, use that paper size.
