Skip Counting and Missing Terms Worksheets

ANSWER / CASE 1

The sequence starts 1, 3, 5 and continues by adding the same amount. Find the next three terms and the step size.

ANSWER: 7, 9, 11; step 2.
1. The difference between consecutive known terms is 2.
2. Add that same difference three more times.

Skip Counting and Missing Terms Worksheets

ANSWER / CASE 2

The sequence starts 2, 5, 8 and continues by adding the same amount. Find the next three terms and the step size.

ANSWER: 11, 14, 17; step 3.
1. The difference between consecutive known terms is 3.
2. Add that same difference three more times.

Skip Counting and Missing Terms Worksheets

ANSWER / CASE 3

The sequence starts 3, 7, 11 and continues by adding the same amount. Find the next three terms and the step size.

ANSWER: 15, 19, 23; step 4.
1. The difference between consecutive known terms is 4.
2. Add that same difference three more times.

Skip Counting and Missing Terms Worksheets

ANSWER / CASE 4

The sequence starts 4, 9, 14 and continues by adding the same amount. Find the next three terms and the step size.

ANSWER: 19, 24, 29; step 5.
1. The difference between consecutive known terms is 5.
2. Add that same difference three more times.