Skip Counting and Missing Terms Worksheets

REFERENCE / CASE 1

The sequence starts 1, 3, 5 and continues by adding the same amount. Find the next three terms and the step size.

METHOD: The difference between consecutive known terms is 2. Add that same difference three more times.
Use the separate practice sheet before checking the answer.

Skip Counting and Missing Terms Worksheets

REFERENCE / CASE 2

The sequence starts 2, 5, 8 and continues by adding the same amount. Find the next three terms and the step size.

METHOD: The difference between consecutive known terms is 3. Add that same difference three more times.
Use the separate practice sheet before checking the answer.

Skip Counting and Missing Terms Worksheets

REFERENCE / CASE 3

The sequence starts 3, 7, 11 and continues by adding the same amount. Find the next three terms and the step size.

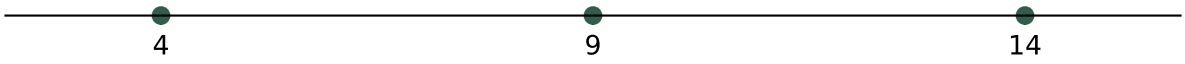

METHOD: The difference between consecutive known terms is 4. Add that same difference three more times.
Use the separate practice sheet before checking the answer.

Skip Counting and Missing Terms Worksheets

REFERENCE / CASE 4

The sequence starts 4, 9, 14 and continues by adding the same amount. Find the next three terms and the step size.

METHOD: The difference between consecutive known terms is 5. Add that same difference three more times.
Use the separate practice sheet before checking the answer.