How to Draw Mountain Goat — Free Practice Sheets

ANSWER / CASE 1

mountain goat: Trace the reference outline, then practise the contour independently. Compare with the separate full reference sheet.

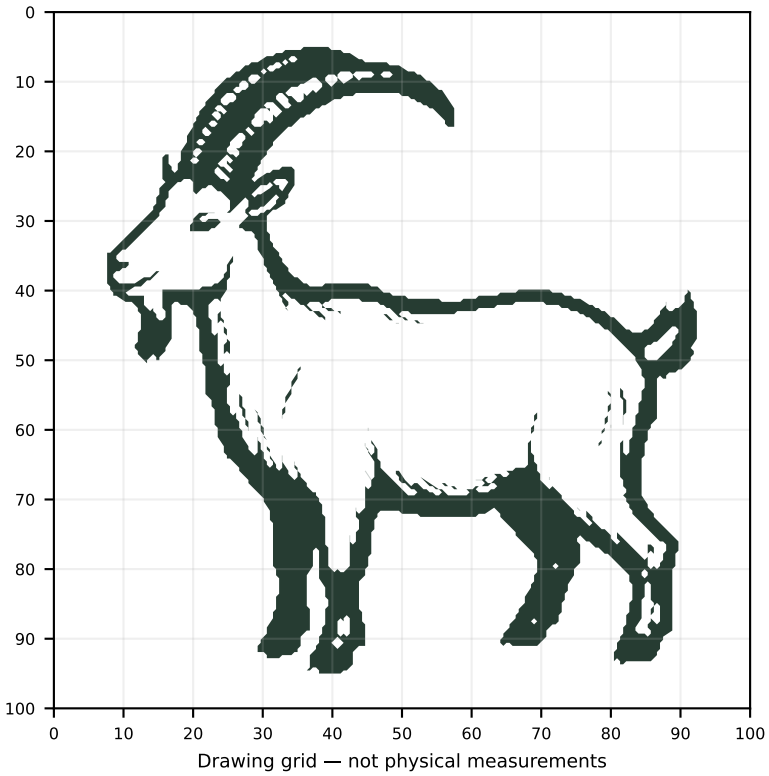

ANSWER: Example solution: preserve long curved backward horns with ridged texture, shaggy beard and neck/chest coat, sturdy short legs with dark lower portions. Other drawings can be correct; assess the visible features and proportions rather than pixel-perfect matching.
1. Draw the head profile with a pointed muzzle, small ear, and beard, then add the two long ridged horns curving back over the neck.
2. Outline the torso as a rounded, slightly rectangular body with a short raised tail at the rear.
3. Attach four short sturdy legs beneath the body, using dark lower legs and hooves to anchor the stance.
4. Add shaggy coat strokes along the neck, chest, and belly, and finish the horn ridges and facial details.
