How to Draw Wild Boar — Free Practice Sheets

ANSWER / CASE 1

wild boar: Trace the reference outline, then practise the contour independently. Compare with the separate full reference sheet.

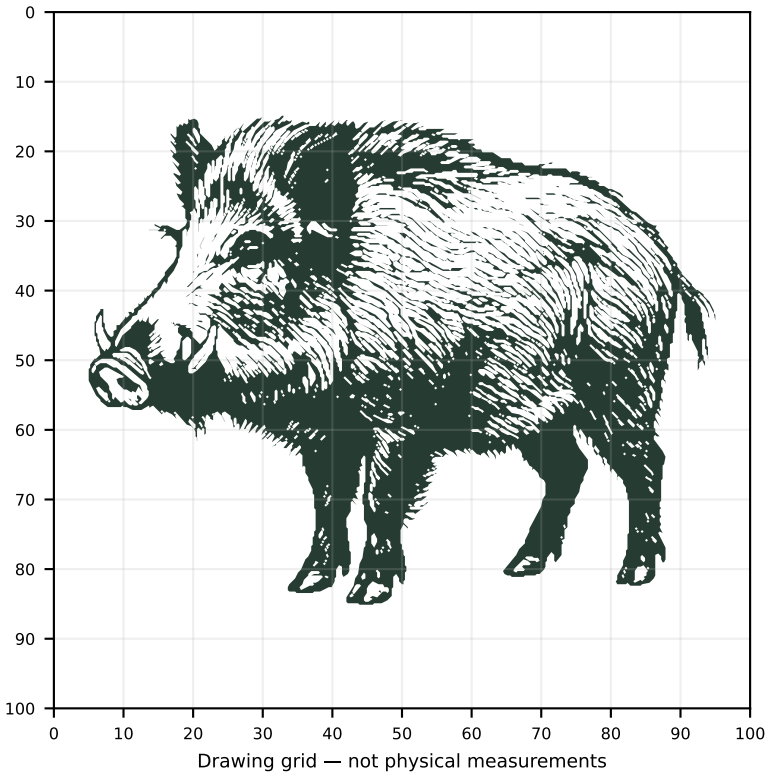

ANSWER: Example solution: preserve prominent elongated snout with visible upward-curving tusks, bristly mane running along the neck and back, stout body with short, sturdy legs. Other drawings can be correct; assess the visible features and proportions rather than pixel-perfect matching.
1. Draw the main body mass as a rounded, slightly elongated oval tilted forward.
2. Add the head at the front-left, shaping a long snout and placing two curved tusks near the mouth.
3. Sketch four short legs beneath the body, ensuring two front and two rear legs attach naturally.
4. Layer bristly mane strokes along the top of the head, neck, and back, then add the small tail at the rear.
